Dear Ralph Hockney!
How have you been? Are you well?

I did not contact you, because it seemed that my budget for this year was well balanced.

But suddenly I heard that Howard Wise gallery is preparing a new show called "TV as art form," and I have to put more than 1000 dollars for the preparation. It is about end of March.

Therefore I have to make somewhere 500 - 1000 before middle of March through lecture, around a short exhibition for mix-media performance.

Do you think you have such a quick possibility? with Industrial resource center or Art Department? Monday and Tuesday is busy because I teach at Douglas College (Rutgers) and Stony Brook, but
